Art Unit: 3722

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Calcagno.

See figure 5 and column 7, lines 5+. Motor 82 rotates a cutter 95 and has a support with left hand threads as shown at 121 which mate with sleeve 119. Sleeve 119 (first portion) is connected to second portion 118 by threads 123, and is rotated relative to internally second portion 118 to adjust the depth of cut. Rotation of portion 119 also causes adjustment between the first portion and threaded support of the motor. While the device of Calcagno is scoring rather than drilling, the term “drill” is given no patentable weight, as there is no explicit drilling structure set forth in the claim. The sentence bridging columns 7 and 8 also acknowledges that this depth adjuster can be used with other cutting apparatus.

3. Claims 1, 3, 5-7, 10-13, and 16-19 are allowed.

4. Applicant's arguments filed June 11 and 21, 2004, have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Claim 20 is a new claim, and it is noted that Applicant provided no specific comments with regard to this claim.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
